THE NEW AMENDMENTS

A good many people wonder why the new amendments to the constitution were not voted on at the last election, and politicians, who had not studied the situation, were much concerned because one of the amendments does away with the poll tax. As a matter of fact the amendments will not be voted on until the next Legislature passes on and adopts the amendments. Following this, in 1911, the amendments will again be advertised and next November they will be passed upon by the people. There is every indication that they will become a part of the fundamental law, as up to the present time there has been no opposition to them, and everybody seems to be willing that the poll tax shall be abolished, as it has been one of the things that the voters evade as much as possible.

DEER HUNTERS GO INTO CAMP

Those who Hunt Fleet Footed Creatures in Camp on the South Mountain. Individual Hunters also after Deer.

With the opening of the deer season this morning Adams County's hunters by the score have gone to the South Mountain to hunt the fleet footed creatures during the next two weeks and all over the mountain the wooded slopes are dotted with the camps of the hunters.

The following camps are located within or near the Adams County line, Brysonia, Taylor, Monterey, Cashtown, Kane's Arendtsville, Adams County, Pendersville. A number of Franklin County clubs are also out on the mountain though the Adams County hunters compete by far the largest proportion of those in camp.

While scores are out in camps there are hunters on the mountain working on their own account. This is the case every year and some of the independents are very successful. One man for seventeen years has captured a deer every year with but one exception. The law now provides that only bucks may be killed.

The hunters are specially interested in going after several old fellows that are said to have been on the mountain for many years and always escape the prowess of their pursuers. One of these is a big black buck which has had everybody guessing for a number of seasons.

Those who are acquainted with the habits of the deer claim that they have changed their runs since last season and this will make the work of the hunters more difficult.

INJURED AT EDMONT

H. M. Fritz, Jr., a brakeman on the Western Maryland Railway, met with his first accident in almost five years of railroading.

He had helped to drop a car off the fast local at Edgemont and attempted to catch the car when it was moving at a speed of about twenty miles an hour. He caught hold of the hand rail but could not keep it, and was hurled to the track.

He feared for a second that he was to be pitched under the wheels but was saved this disaster. He, however, was severely injured. His left shoulder was dislocated by the fall and a deep gash was cut in his chin.

The train was stopped and Mr. Fritz was taken aboard and to Hagers-town where he received treatment and where two stitches were put in his chin.

Mr. Fritz is carrying his left arm in a sling and will be unable to resume his duties as brakeman for several weeks.

BURNED SAVING HOUSE

Henry Brockman was badly burned at the home of D. P. McPherson, Carlisle street, on Monday when some fluid used in treating the woodwork at the home suddenly ignited and caused what threatened for a few moments to be a serious fire. The can in which the blaze started was thrown out of the building by Mr. Brockman and the other fire put out with rags. In his efforts to save the house Mr. Brockman had his arm badly burned, his eyebrows singed and his face painfully scorched. A chemical reaction following the pouring of one liquid into another is supposed to have caused the trouble. Mr. Brockman was engaged in laying floors when the trouble occurred. Smoke caused damage which will require some of the work in remodeling the house to be done again.

LEG AND COLLAR BONE BROKEN

William Rutter, of McSherrytown, met with a very painful accident Saturday afternoon. While at work in a stone quarry near Granite Station, a mass of earth and rock fell upon him, breaking one of his legs in three places and one of his collar bones. It is also feared the unfortunate man sustained internal injuries. Mr. Rutter was conveyed to his home where he is doing as well as can be expected. He is under the care of Dr. A. C. Rice, of McSherrytown.

BOOMING DAYS IN BIGLERVILLE

Houses Erected in Large Numbers during Summer just Closed. Industries Successful and Employ 175 Hands.

The prosperous little town of Biglerville situated in the fertile upper end of Adams County justly feels proud of the record for progress and industry it has made during the past ten months.

There have been built and are in course of completion, nineteen new dwellings and three old dwellings, remodelled, and fitted with modern conveniences. The hotel also has been equipped with a steam heat plant and sanitary plumbing, being the only one so improved in the northern end of the county.

Several new industries have been added to the already busy town, among them the new modern wood working plant of F. C. Walter, the produce business of the Rice Brothers Produce Company, the condensed milk plant of the Heisey Creamery Company, the blacksmith shop of C. C. Hanes, the sixty foot addition to the large hardware store of S. G. Bigham; the large addition to the barrel factory of U. S. Klinefelter, the large storage tank for the distribution of Lime-Sulphur Solution to the many fruit growers of the vicinity, this tank being erected by the Thomson Chemical Company of Baltimore, Md. and operated by the Biglerville Warehouse Co., and the Meersman Canning Co. have doubled the capacity of their plant making it a veritable bee hive of industry.

The various industries now give employment to about one hundred and twenty-five people. In addition to the dwellings mentioned there have been built many storage sheds, stables and other buildings making a total of thirty-nine.

To the many concrete pavements have been added during the past summer, almost four thousand feet of additional concrete construction, making this little village one of the best paved towns in the county.

The receipts of the Philadelphia and Reading Railway at this point show a large increase over the preceding year proving that business and improvements move in the same healthy ratio as is further proved by the increase of deposits in the local bank to a total of $128,000.

The improvements in Biglerville are the result of not only individual effort but of the joint efforts of every citizen working for the benefit of the greatest number and all working in harmony.

Wolfersberger, accompanied by Maurics Harbaugh went to Fairfield Sunday morning and took the afflicted man home in an automobile. It is probable that Mr. Wolfersberger will be confined to his home for several weeks as the attack was a very severe one.

RAILROADER IS STRUCK BY TRAIN

Daniel Heiges, of Near Brandtsville, Struck by Engine and Sustains Injuries which Require Hospital Treatment.

Daniel Heiges, a section hand for the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad Company, was struck by an engine west of Rose Garden, near Carlisle Junction Monday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock and seriously, if not fatally, injured.

Heiges was at work along the tracks with a gang of workmen when an engine came puffing along. He evidently did not see or hear the engine until it was upon him. In his attempt to leap to safety his foot caught on the rails and he fell directly in front of the pilot. Heiges was tossed at least twenty feet, and when picked up by workmen he was unconscious.

He was placed on a shifter and taken to Harrisburg where he was admitted to the hospital. An examination showed that his skull is fractured and his body is badly contused. His chances for recovery are slight. Heiges lives near Brandtsville. He is 23 years of age.

YOUNG'S TESTIMONY WEAK;

BALL PLAYER NOT GUILTY

Fomer N. Young, upon whose statement a warrant was issued for Thomas McCoy, of Canton, Ohio, charged with murder following the death of Rudolph Munk from injuries sustained in a foot ball game Saturday, has weakened in his testimony against the accused player and as a result, the coroner's jury has rendered a verdict of accidental death. The warrant for the player has been withdrawn. The most important testimony came before the jury in the shape of a special delivery letter to the coroner from Mr. Young, who officiated as umpire. On Sunday he had given testimony tending to show that McCoy had intentionally struck down Munk and it was on the strength of his version of the tragic affair that the warrant for murder followed.

In his letter, placed before the coroner's jury Mr. Young said:

"I cannot state with absolute positiveness that McCoy struck Munk, although it appeared to me that he struck him about the head. I cannot state with absolute positiveness that the act was done intentionally, although there may have been circumstances from which it may be inferred that there was intention and deliberation to strike."

WOULD CLOSE POLLS EARLIER

Movement on Foot to Close Polls on Election Days before Seven o'clock in the Evening. Better for Election Boards.

Sentiment for closing the polls at an earlier hour than 7 o'clock in the evening at all Pennsylvania elections seems to be developing rapidly throughout the State. Something in this line may be suggested to the next Legislature.

Some of the politicians seem to prefer to keep the polls open until the present limit of 7 p. m. This, it is said, is because the workers "get in their fine work" late in the day and early in the evening after outsiders are not as watchful as they have been earlier.

It is argued that the earlier closing would be of especial benefit in the rural districts, although the benefit to the cities would not be inconsiderable. One thing which delayed last Tuesday's returns was that the count was not finished at many rural polls until after available telephone exchanges had been closed. This in a large measure was responsible for the uncertainty of the result of the voting.

It is likely that members of election boards would hail an earlier closing with glee. The officers on such boards have to be on duty constantly from 7 a. m. until 7 p. m. and then have to spend hours computing the votes.

DEBATE DREW BIG CROWD

Fairfield, Nov. 15.—The debate held at West Fairfield school Friday evening to keep the polls open until the present limit of 7 p. m. DIRT SOON TO FLY

'Work on the Pen Mar-Blue Ridge Summit extension of the Chambersburg, Greencastle and Waynesboro Railway will begin as soon as the men and tools can be gotten together, under the supervision of John Warehime' is the authorized announcement made by President George Beaver, of the C. G. and W. Railway Company.

It is expected that the line will be finished this winter, but it is not decided whether it will be extended as far as the golf grounds of the Monterey club, at Highfield. It will run very close to Lake Royer.

Every right of way necessary for the building of the line has been procured without resort to condemnation proceedings.

A special train had been prepared for the president. DOCTOR KILLED BY WIFE

She Then Shoots Herself and Will Probably Die.

New York, Nov. 15.—Dr. Theodore R. Burgdorf was shot and instantly killed by his wife, Anna, at their home in Bronx borough.

After shooting her husband, Mrs. Burgdorf turned the revolver on herself, the bullet entering her abdomen. She was taken in an unconscious condition to a hospital, where it was said that she probably would die. The cause of the shooting is not known.

It developed that Mrs. Burgdorf had long been the victim of a disease which caused her excruciating pain. This she gasped out in the hospital, made her wish to die and she shot her husband, who is a prominent physician in the upper part of the city, because she could not bear to leave him behind.

GOMPERS RAPS THE PRESIDENT

Assails Mr. Taft For Opposing Labor Legislation.

CHAMP CLARK IS CHEERED

Labor Leader Raps President For Advocating Anti-Injunction Bill Which He Declares Confirms Use of Writs to DeDtriment of Workingmen.

St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 15.—Bitterly denouncing the attitude of President Taft toward labor in regard to anti-injunction legislation and enforcement of the Sherman anti-trust law, Samuel Gompers made his annual report as president of the American Federation of Labor.

Politics, the failure of congress to pass many important acts demanded by labor, the progress that was made on minor legislation and denunciation of judge-made law took up most of Mr. Gompers' time. His report was the feature of the thirtieth annual convention of the Federation, which will convene in session for two weeks.

The opening session was devoted to welcoming the delegates and honorary guests, some of them from England. The afternoon session was devoted to reports of Mr. Gompers; the secretary, Frank Morrison, and the treasurer, John B. Lennon.

The anti-injunction bill introduced in congress by Representative Reuben O. Moon, of Philadelphia, was the point on which Mr. Gompers made his first attack on President Taft and equally as bitterly an attack on the Philadelphia congressman. This bill, the labor leader asserted, was without one bit of relief for labor and simply put into law the use of the injunction against which labor complained so bitterly. This bill, he asserted, had President Taft's full support, while that of Representative William B. Wilson, of Pennsylvania, carrying the real remedy demanded by labor, was opposed by Mr. Taft.

Mr. Gompers also denounced the action of the president, as he said, in forcing the lower house of congress to recede from its amendment to the sundry civil appropriations bill that would have prevented the use of the Sherman anti-trust law against labor unions. He asserted that Mr. Taft showed the greatest gratification at the defeat of this "rider," and declared that the president used coercion to accomplish its defeat.

"The labor movement is greater than any party platform," said Mr. Gompers in responding to the addresses of welcome, "because it is governed by a principle as true as nature itself, and because it expresses the discontent of the masses."

Jeers Greet Cannon's Name.

The session was turned into an insurgent political rally by Owen Miller, president of the Missouri Federation of Labor. Jeers greeted the name of Joseph G. Cannon, and loud applause the name of Champ Clark.

Victor Berger, of Milwaukee, the first Socialist to be elected to congress, received many congratulations from his fellow delegates.

Seventy-five women were in the convention as delegates. One of them is Miss Zula Taylor, twenty years old, who will cast the entire vote of the state of Kansas, having been elected the representative of the Kansas Federation of Labor. She is secretary and treasurer of the Kansas Garment Workers' union.

Mr. Gompers told of laying complaints against the United States Steel corporation before President Taft and then reverted to the strike of the unorganized workmen of the Bethlehem Steel company. He added:

"Consequently the United States senate allowed a resolution to pass, introduced at the instance of the American Federation of Labor, which authorized the federal bureau of labor to investigate conditions in the steel works at South Bethlehem.

"It is recommended that during the approaching sessions of the legislature in Pennsylvania, West Virginia, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Wisconsin, Alabama and elsewhere that the state authorities be urged to institute thorough investigations and proceedings against the corporation (United States Steel) in so far as it is operating illegally and improperly within the state or states, and it is further urged that the investigation be extended to the industrial and economic conditions prevailing among the workers in the industry."

The annual report of Secretary Morrison says that there were 1,561,151 members at the close of the fiscal year, Sept. 30, 1910, a gain of 80,000 over last year, but 100,000 smaller than their biggest year, 1904. The Federation has a reserve fund of $183,000. There were 827 strikes in the last year, of which 470 were won, 259 are pending, 84 were compromised and only 62 were lost.

Record Export Month.

Washington, Nov. 15.—The exports out of this country in the month of October were larger than in any previous month in the history of the United States foreign trade, while the imports were about $4,000,000 less than in the corresponding month last year. Figures compiled by the department of commerce and labor show that the total value of imports during the past month was $123,868,448, and the exports $208,057,785.

A ROYAL COUPLE.

Princess Clementine and Prince Victor Napoleon Wed.

ROYAL LOVERS FINALLY MARRY

Pretender to French Throne Weds Leopold's Daughter.

Moncalieri, Italy, Nov. 15.—Prince Victor Napoleon, pretender to the French throne, and Princess Clementine of Belgium, youngest daughter of the late King Leopold, were married here.

The civil marriage was celebrated in the drawing room of the royal castle and the religious ceremony was afterwards performed in the chapel of the castle.

There was a distinguished gathering present, including the Dowager Queen Margherita, the princes of the Italian royal house and the Countess of Flanders, mother of King Albert of Belgium.

The romance which culminated in the wedding was of six years' standing. The late King Leopold was very much opposed to the match, but after his death, with the assistance of former Empress Eugenie, the final arrangements were made without much trouble. The Countess of Flanders was also very much in favor of the match.

Prince Victor has been in exile in Brussels, living on his income of $10,000 a year. He was forty-two years old when he met and fell in love with the princess, who is about thirty-eight. She is a charming and beautiful woman in spite of her extreme pallor and her sad, dark eyes.

GIRL OF 8 SAVES BROTHER

Child Rescues Three-Year-Old Boy Drowning in Pond.

Pittsburg, Pa., Nov. 15.—Stripping off her coat like a "grown-up," eight-year-old Martha Stauffer, of Emsworth, a suburb, jumped into a pond and rescued from drowning her three-year-old brother, who had fallen in while throwing stones.

The child swam to the bank in four feet of water, supporting her little charge.

FLIES FROM SHIP
OVER SEA TO LAND
Ely Makes Spectacular Flight
From Naval Vessel.
WEATHER CONDITIONS BAD
Daring Aviator Covered About Five Miles In Little More Than Five Minutes—Biplane Touched Water at the Start.
Norfolk, Va., Nov. 15.—Eugene B.
Ely, the aviator, made the first successful flight from the deck of a naval vessel when his Curtiss biplane was started from a temporary launching platform on the forward deck of the scout cruiser Birmingham, which was anchored in Hampton Roads, off Old Point Comfort. It was the most spectacular flight ever seen in this country.
After many hours of preparation Ely finally climbed into his machine. He had been delayed for several hours by flurries of hail and rain. He was anxious, however, to start in spite of the adverse weather conditions. Finally his aeroplane was started down the platform, which was inclined at an angle of about five degrees. His machine gathered momentum rapidly, Ely making a slight miscalculation in controlling the levers, which made his machine dart down toward the water.
The wheels to the tip of his propeller just barely touched the water. He succeeded in righting the machine and by skillful maneuvering of the control levers it darted upward like a seagull. Ely rose to a height of about 100 feet and flew about five miles to ward Willoughby Spit, just opposite Old Point Comfort, where he landed safely. During the flight a biting wind and rain prevailed, which prevented
the aviator from identifying the landmarks.
Machine Touched Water.
It was Ely's original intention to fly from the deck of the Birmingham to the Norfolk navy yard, a much greater distance, but he was prevented
by the adverse weather conditions.
As his machine touched the water
the spray flew into his goggles, almost blinding him, which prevented him
from continuing the flight to the navy yard. His propeller blade was also slightly chipped by contact with the water, but not sufficiently, however, to interfere with the flight.
Every spectator on the naval vessels and the other craft which were gathered in the roads breathed hard for a moment when it looked as if the machine would be unable to rise from the surface of the water. Ely had no difficulty, however, in managing the machine, and sent it upward by suddenly tilting the elevating planes.
They responded instantly and the machine traveled swiftly upward in almost a straight line to Willoughby Spit.
He saw the land directly ahead of Willoughby Spit and descended there without difficulty. He covered about five miles in a little more than five minutes. His machine traveled at the rate of about fifty-five miles an hour.
A launch from the scout cruiser picked Ely up and placed him on board the destroyer Roe, on which he returned to the Norfolk navy yard.

CALF CHEWS UP $118
Woman Discovers Loss, and Money,
Badly Mutilated, Is Recovered.
Spartanburg, S. C., Nov. 15.—While going milking, Mrs. Luther Calvert, who lives at Clinton, dropped a pocketbook containing five $20 bills, a ten and a five and three ones, besides a silver quarter.
The money was missed an hour later and a thorough search revealed the quarter, which showed signs of having been chewed upon by a calf.
A young heifer in the yard had a guilty look and a veterinary surgeon was summoned. The roll was extricated from the stomach of the calf in a badly mutilated condition. The bills were taken to a local bank cashier, who sent them to Washington to be redeemed.
Mexicans Assassinated.
Austin, Tex., Nov. 15.—Another Mexican, Damian Rios, who kept a restaurant at Giddings, thirty miles east of here, was assassinated as he was on his way home. Much excitement exists among the Mexicans of the manor community, fifteen miles east of here, over the assassination of a Mexican farmer by two negro boys.
Professor's Nemesis Arrested.
Boston, Nov. 15.—Annie Markley, colored, who in 1908 sued Professor Philip B. Marcou, of Harvard, for $25-000 in a breach of promise case, was held in $800 bail on the charge of selling cocaine and in $100 for being present when cocaine was sold.

New York, Nov. 15.—With his arm uplifted in appeal, Dr. Ferdinand O.
Zesch, of the German Presbyterian church, was stricken in the pulpit at Jamaica, L. I., and died before he could be taken from the church. His face be-max of a spirited sentence, his raised hand fell on the open Bible and he toppled backward in the pulpit. His parishioners carried him to a cushioned pew, but he only motioned feebly to his heart and died before aid could be summoned.

TOLSTOI A WANDERER
Quits Monastery With Doctor and Destination Is Unknown.
St. Petersburg, Nov. 15.—Count Leo Tolstoi, author and philosopher, is a wanderer on the face of the earth.
Tolstoi has left the monastery at Shamardino, in which he took refuge after his desertion of his home and family last Thursday. The count and Dr. Makovsky unexpectedly left, announcing that they were going to Moscow.
They quitted the train upon which they started at a junction and boarded another train for the south. It is said his daughter is also with him.
It is conjectured that the count intends to join the colony of Tolstoians
in Caucasasia.
It is also reported that Tolstoi will proceed to Canada to join the Dukhobors, followers of his teachings.

DEEP MYSTERY IN SHOOTING OF MAN
Shot Down by Stranger While Waiting For Car.
Chester, Pa., Nov. 15.—While waiting to board a trolley car for Darby at the Philadelphia Rapid Transit company's junction, John Hall, of Philadelphia, was approached by a strange man, who, drawing a revolver, deliberately shot him.
Both shots took effect, one in the abdomen and the other in the back. As soon as the Chester bound car came along Hall was brought to Chester and taken to the Chester hospital, where the bullets were extracted.
Hall says that the man who shot him was about twenty-four years old and wore a cap. Several people who were in the waiting room quickly left the building to investigate. They saw no one but Hall lying on the cement platform. Learning the direction taken by the assailant several of the men started in pursuit of him, but the stranger succeeded in evading them.
After being placed on the car Hall had two hemorrhages, and when he reached the hospital he was in an exceedingly weak condition.

STRONGLY GUARD MURDER SUSPECT
Crowd Surrounds the Jail at Asbury Park.
NEGRO GIVEN THIRD DEGREE
Suspected Slayer of Ten-Year-Old Schoolgirl Contradicts Himself When Examined by Police.

Asbury Park, N. J., Nov. 15.—Around and about the Asbury Park jail a threatening crowd waited for a leader
to start a demonstration against Thomas Williams, alias Black Diamond, the negro who is believed to have murdered ten-year-old Marie Smith, the Asbury Park schoolgirl, whose mutilated body was found in the woods near Wanamassa.
Black Diamond was arrested and placed in the lockup before Asbury Park citizens were alive to the capture. He made a statement to the police, which was partially disproved, in which he undertook to establish an alibi accounting in detail for his movements last Wednesday, when the crime is believed to have been committed.
It was shown from investigation
that Black Diamond was in the immediate vicinity of the woods about the time Marie was trudging home from school Wednesday morning. Blood marks on the leaves were discovered
twenty feet away from Third avenue, along a narrow path which led into the woods. The marks were traced for 500 feet and traced to the spot where the body was found.
The discovery leads to the supposition that the child was enticed into the covered pathway and there assaulted. Then it is believed her body was dragged further into the woods across Third avenue and finally to the spot where it was found.
Suspect Contradicts Himself.
Black Diamond told the police he was drunk on Wednesday. He said he left Griffin's saloon at Wanamassa at 12 o'clock. The barkeeper said he went away at 10 o'clock. Still maintaining his innocence, Williams was cross-questioned by Officer Broderick and confronted with fresh facts learned. He is said to have contradicted himself repeatedly, and Broderick believes he was on the point of confession, when he closed his lips tight and refused to be questioned further.
He was taken from his cell up a stairway inside the building and closeted for two hours with Chief of Police Smith and detectives, who put him through a rigid examination. It is stated the prisoner weakened under the strain, but stuck obstinately to his first story. Black Diamond was committed by Police Justice John Borden without bail. No date has been set for the coroner's inquest.
It was the first impression of the physicians who examined the child's body that the marks on the nose, the face and the left hand had been caused by burns, and the absence of any burned leaves near where the body was found for a time strengthened the belief that the child had been murdered somewhere else and her body thrown into the woods. Later it was found the marks weren't burns. Those on the hand proved to be caked dirt and were easily washed off.
Given Third Degree.
The body of the murdered girl was brought to police headquarters in a covered wagon and laid out in Chief of Police Smith's private office. Black Diamond was brought from his cell and taken to the room. When his eyes fell upon the victim the negro broke down and declared before God that he had never harmed her.
Last night the crowd about the jail assumed alarming proportions and the temper of the bystanders was ugly.
The guard had been doubled and a special cordon of officers remained all night on duty.

The Girl Who Lives Alone

whether she attends college or goes to business, needs the Perfection Oil Heater. It will heat a cold, cheerless boarding house or dormitory room and make it livable. It is always a ready help in the many things women do for themselves in their rooms. With the damper top opened it will heat water for tea or cocoa; it will dry the small articles that a woman prefers to wash herself in her own room. It will quickly heat an iron or curling tongs; quickly dry wet shoes or skirts—an ever ready help for the woman who lives alone, dependent on her own resources. The

PERFECTION OIL HEATER
Absolutely smokeless and odorless

Is invaluable in its capacity of quickly giving heat. It will burn nine hours with one filling. It is safe, smokeless and odorless; has a cool handle and a damper top. An indicator shows the amount of oil in the font. The filler-cap is put in like a cork in a bottle, and is attached to the font by a chain. It has an automatic-locking flame spreader, which prevents the wick from being turned high enough to smoke, and is easy to remove and drop back so the wick can be quickly cleaned. The burner body or gallery cannot become wedged, and can be unscrewed in an instant for reworking. Finished in japan or nickel, strong, durable, well-made, reliable service, and yet light and ornamental.

J. C. C. Grace

A Dollar Corset that Looks Twice Its Price

In this day of high prices $1.00 is considered a very small price for a corset. Be that as it may, $1.00 is a particularly small price for this corset.

There is as much style in the J. C. C. Grace as in many a corset at $2.00 or more. It fits well, it yields the greatest degree of comfort, and it wears as long as any one could ask.

A good grade of coutil is employed in the development of this model; the boning can be relied upon and the two pairs of supporters are extra strong. The hips are long and the bust medium.

There is a fan-like arrangement of stitching, at the lower center front which helps to keep the straight, flat line now all desirable.

At $1.50, $2.00, $2.50 and upwards we show other J. C. C. models that are equally fine values.

The management of "St. Elmo" a play made from Augusta J. Evans' famous book of the same name, appeal to the theatre-going public of this city to respond liberally and attend this presentation in numbers. They want your verdict as to the dramatic value of their play. It is the general custom in the smaller cities to depend upon reputation of a play gained in the larger cities. In this way plays of real merit oft times visit the smaller cities without attracting the least attention, simply because the plays do not have the stamp of approval of New York and the other larger cities. In numerous cases this stamp of approval is lacking, owing to the fact that the attraction in point has not been able to secure a theatre in New York, which is quite natural as there are not enough theatres in that city to place all the new attractions each season. For this reason the management of "St. Elmo" respectfully ask our theatre-going citizens to attend their performance and render a verdict which they will appreciate just as much as a verdict rendered by an audience in any of the larger cities of the country.
